Ex Cathedra Consort

Jeffrey Skidmore conductor

“well nigh flawless, both in its programming and the superlative artistry of the ten singers”

Birmingham Post

The glorious polyphony and rhythmic verve of Padilla's Missa ego flos campi is complemented by stunning, seasonal music from Renaissance Spain and Latin America in the first half of this intimate concert. We return to our roots in the second half with a selection of 'most highly favoured' Christmas music and readings from the 13th to 18th-centuries.
