

A BMEMF BAROQUE BONANZA

Workshop for Orchestral String Players on Modern and Baroque Instruments (A=440)

Tutor: Julia Bishop

Saturday, 24th November, 2018.

Venue: Grange Court, Leominster, HR6 8NL

Registration: from 9.30 a.m. Workshop: 10.00 a.m. - 4.30 p.m.

BMEMF is very pleased to provide an opportunity for orchestral string players to partake in a workshop that, using the music of Corelli, Handel et al, will explore the techniques used to accomplish a baroque style of playing. This is an 'outreach' project aimed to encourage experienced modern players to give period style a go (baroque bows will be available to try). Players who already have baroque instruments and bows will be equally welcome to take this opportunity to hone their technique. Good sight-reading skills are essential as there will be enough to apply ourselves to without having to note bash!

Julia Bishop is recognised as one of the leading Baroque violinists of her generation, touring the world extensively and making numerous recordings with the period instrument orchestras of the UK including the London Classical Players, the Hanover Band, the Academy of Ancient Music, the English Concert and as leader and soloist with the Gabrieli Consort and Players. In 1997 Julia co-founded the ensemble Red Priest with recorder player Piers Adams and enjoyed 19 years of huge success touring Europe, the Far East and America. She is head of the newly-formed Early Music department at Chichester University and is also guest Baroque violin teacher at the Royal Academy and the Royal College of Music. Further details about Julia, the repertoire for the day and Grange Court are on the BMEMF website.

For this special project, the exceptional 'come and try' price is £10 / £5 (full-time students).

Prior - and early - applications are essential, as places are limited.
